MIKE GIRESI

Chief Digital Officer,
Molex

BIOGRAPHY

With over three decades of experience in business technology innovation and IT leadership, Mike Giresi is responsible for leading the ongoing digital transformation at Molex.

Since joining Molex in 2019 as the company's first Chief Digital Officer, Mike has positioned digital transformation as a strategic driver of value creation for Molex. Under Mike's leadership, Molex introduced the 'One Molex' operating model, adding new technology programs and scaling processes across the business in product development, manufacturing, operations, and customer e-commerce—all with the focus on improving the customer and employee experience.

Prior to joining Molex, Mike held a number of executive technology leadership roles, honing his ability to strengthen both the employee and customer experience at each one. He began his career in sales before transitioning into IT, advancing through positions of increasing responsibility before accepting a position as CIO and SVP of IT for Godiva in 2005. From there, Mike would also serve as CIO across a variety of industries, including leadership positions with Tory Burch, Royal Caribbean, and Aramark.

Mike has a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Seton Hall University and an MBA from Saint Joseph's University. He currently resides in Naperville, IL.
