

creating connections for life

Robert Zeitler

Senior Vice President,
General Counsel &
Secretary, Molex

BIOGRAPHY

Robert J. (Bob) Zeitler is Senior Vice President, General Counsel & Secretary for Molex. He is responsible for all aspects of legal affairs globally for the company, including strategic direction of the legal function, ensuring maximum protection of the company's legal rights, ensuring the company's activities comply with legal and regulatory requirements, leveraging Molex's vast intellectual property portfolio, and management and development of legal department personnel. In addition, Bob provides strategic oversight to Molex's compliance function.

Bob has held various positions of increasing responsibility within Molex's legal department since joining the company in 1998 as a Patent Counsel. He was promoted to Associate General Counsel in 2002, Vice President and Co-General Counsel in 2007, and to his current position in 2008. As a member of the GLT, Bob is focused on optimizing and transforming the delivery of legal support to Molex, ensuring that legal support is timely, pragmatic and holistically looks at the business issue to ensure that it provides a business solution. In addition, Bob contributes to the overall vision and strategic direction of Molex.

Prior to joining Molex, Mr. Zeitler was an associate at the Chicago office of an international law firm. Before beginning his legal career, Mr. Zeitler spent eight years as an officer in the United States Air Force, where he held various technical, management, and leadership positions relating to the military space program.

Bob holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from Michigan Technological University, a Master of Science degree in Systems Management from the University of Southern California and a Juris Doctor degree from Loyola University Chicago. He currently resides in the Chicago area.